BLOODY ELECTION DAY

Terrible Fighting at the Kentucky Election.

Claims of a Republican Victory—Several Men Killed and a Number Wounded at Various Points.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 6.—The interest in the election for Judge for the Appellate Court in the Eastern Kentucky District is very great, but the remoteness of some of the courts makes it impossible to get the results at once.

Forty counties are entered in the district. No Republican has ever been elected to the Appellate Bench before.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Aug. 6.—Reports from along the line of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad give evidence of a bitter fight over the election of Appellate Judge from the First District Monday.

At Lexington, in an encounter at Enterprise, Robert Griffith shot and killed two men, and then died from the effects of a shot from the pistol of one of the slain, who first before he was himself killed, or from the pistol of some unknown person.

At Lexington, a fight took place near the polls between Wm. Trumbull and H. G. Price, and after exchanging shots the fight became general.

O'DONNELL'S LEPELERS.

He Can Nowhere Get Permission to Enter Kentucky.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 6.—Dr. C. O'Donnell, the San Francisco "leper man," has arrived here, and is stopping at the Elbow House.

He says he was born in Ireland, and attended medical school at the University of Maryland, and finished his medical education in Chicago. He has a brother, E. Louis O'Donnell, and also a sister residing here.

The doctor also says he is a nephew of the late Edmund O'Donnell, a very well known capitalist up to the time of his death. He says he will exhaust every effort to secure permission to exhibit his lepers, and takes hope as he did in other cities of having them conceded.

If he should attempt to make an exhibition of the lepers he will be arrested.

Failing to be allowed to air his lepers here, he will, he says, go to Washington, taking his precious freight, which he says he has contained in a box in a railroad car, and take them to the steps of the Capitol where, after making a speech, he will leave them.

It is thought that he will place one of the lepers in Senator Hoar's chair and then leave for the Pacific coast. It is not thought here that he has any sympathy with him at all, and that he is endeavoring to secure some cheap notoriety by exhibiting photographs of two horrible looking objects which he says are lepers.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—The health officers of Washington, incited by the interview with O'Donnell of last week, called this morning, in which he says that his lepers are in Washington, having been sent here from New York in a box car under the guise of leprosy in charge of a hired driver, and investigated the story so far as possible.

The officers of the Department said that he did not believe that O'Donnell had any lepers.

"His whole story," he said, "is an inconsistent one, and this office has come to the conclusion that probably he is a crank."

"Can you not see that he has sent a horse or his lepers here?"

"No; we can't find out nothing of the sort. We have given the matter the most careful attention trying to learn whether there is any foundation for his statement, and we have concluded that there is not. If he comes here this office will very likely see him to be arrested on a charge of larceny and have him sent to the insane asylum. I don't know how any man could propose such a thing as that."

Major Dyer, Chief of Police, having received information that O'Donnell proposed to come to Washington with his lepers, telegraphed to Marshal Gray, of Baltimore, for special information as to the train on which they will come.

"I have had policemen stationed at each depot," he said, "with instructions to prevent the lepers from coming, and to arrest O'Donnell. We have the power under the law, I think, to arrest him and let the court test the matter. I have notified the superintendent of the Baltimore and Annapolis line that if he comes here he will be arrested."

Late yesterday afternoon Major Dyer received a message from the police authorities there did not believe that O'Donnell had any lepers, and that they had been unable to find any of them.

LOGAN CONFIDENT.

In Conference with National Republican Committee.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—General Logan arrived from Washington Monday afternoon. One of the first to send a card to his room at the Fifth Avenue Hotel was a messenger from the National Committee headquarters.

There was a steady run of callers afterward, and the general was kept busy all day.

At 10 o'clock a messenger called at his quarters, and a reception followed a short conference with Chairman Jones, in which the general was in complete agreement with the candidate's approval.

General Logan had no views to express on it, saying it was the business of the Committee and not his. He said he had no objection to the candidates, and that he was in complete agreement with the candidate's approval.

THE CHINAMAN ON TOP.

Evasion of the Chinese Immigration Restriction Act.

Secretary Frelinghuysen Charged With Nullifying the Law—Cases in Court—Strained Construction by Judges.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 6.—There is the usual trouble in the United States District Court as to the admission of Chinamen, the District Attorney arguing for carrying out the restriction law as recently amended in Congress, while Judges Sawyer and Hoffman are construing it more to the advantage of the coolies.

Hillman maintains that the act applies to those Chinese on route for the Pacific coast prior to its passage, while the judges contend to the contrary.

The Chinese Consul here is becoming more impatient and overbearing, and with the concurrence of the State Department at Washington is likely to make the matter a hot one.

Col. Belmont, the Chinese Consul, recently located in the District Court that he had caused about sixty railroads of the Collector of the Port of San Francisco to be reversed in Washington.

The latest in the matter is that the Customs House at San Francisco has placed alone to issue certificates, whether to merchants or laborers, and so notified the Chinese Consul.

The latter communicated with Washington, and Frelinghuysen decided that Chinese Consular certificates should be treated as prima facie evidence. Later still, he was notified that the Collector of the Port of San Francisco had issued fourteen Chinese were found on board equipped with Chinese Consular certificates.

They were not allowed to land at once, and the Chinese Consul again appealed to Frelinghuysen, in response to which the following dispatch was received at the Customs House here:

"WASHINGTON, D. C., July 31. 'To the Collector of Customs, San Francisco. 'Allow twenty-four Chinese merchants who arrived at your port the 25th inst. to land without executing the evidence required by the act of July 6, 1884.'"

"CHARLES E. COON, Acting Secretary."

No statement concerning the persons in question was received from the Collector of the Port of Washington, and the action of the State Department was based entirely upon the representation made by the Chinese Consul.

It will also be noticed that the Washington authorities requested the landing of more Chinese than were held. If the Chinese Consul had been given Chinese Consular certificates to be good, there is no telling how many irregular landings will be made.

THE DEPOSIT FEE.

Later Particulars—Loss Over One Hundred Thousand Dollars.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—The Pennsylvania Railroad Company's tug got as close to the fire as possible, and three streams of water on the flames. The tug was unable to effect a landing, and remained in mid-stream.

The employees had been smelling seeping gas for weeks at the ferry office. Ferry Master Robert Jones was alone in his office, his assistant having closed up and gone home.

A body had just stepped up to buy a ticket, when a terrific explosion occurred directly beneath the seat of the ticket-holder.

The lady was thrown backward upon the sidewalk, but was not severely injured. She walked home.

The ferry-master was blown fifty feet into the air, and struck the ceiling of the booth and dropped several and senseless to the floor.

He recovered consciousness in a moment and escaped just in time from the fire. The first explosion had been followed by a second, which was soon in flames.

Immediately following the explosion a sheet of flame shot into the air. The fire spread with marvelous rapidity along over 300 feet of the pier.

It was conjectured by some that the fire had spread through the gas-pipe, and that the first explosion had been caused by the gas.

Many guests began to remove their baggage, and the clerks had difficulty in preventing a panic.

Abraham Goodwin, twenty-one years old, and Jennie Gallagher, nineteen years old, were badly burned. They were brought to this city and taken to the hospital.

NINE negroes from Lexington who were working at a manufacturing establishment in this city, were induced to go back to Lexington for the purpose of voting for the Republican candidates by the promise it is alleged, of their railroad fare, and the price of the time lost from their work. They left by the train Monday and were met by a person who had been informed of the arrangement, and it may be an interesting piece of news to the smart agents, who engaged their services, to know that all nine of them voted the straight Democratic ticket. You can't always sometimes tell how things are going to turn out.

MR. CHARLES EMERSON and a corps of assistants began, on Monday, the preparation of a complete business directory for this city. The work will be finished as rapidly as possible, and we have reason to believe it will be well done. The following is from the Frankfort Board about: "Mr. Charles Emerson has just completed and published the first city directory of Frankfort. The work is gotten up with great care and contains much useful information to our people.
In addition to a full and complete alphabetical list of all the residents of the city, with their place of business and residence, it contains a postoffice, telegraph and express office directory of the State; a list of all the land owners in the county, with their postoffice addresses and names; a classified list of all the business of the city and county, and an amount of miscellaneous information, making a volume well worth having, and one which advances the interest of our people by advertising to the world that we are not only a city in name but in fact. Mr. Emerson has had considerable experience in this business and has done his work well. He proposes to return again in two years to get out a second volume, and it is hoped that at that time our population will have become so numerous that he will be compelled to issue a volume twice the size of the present. He will shortly be the work of getting out a similar volume in Mayville, and we can safely recommend him to the residents of that city as a gentleman in every way worthy of their confidence, who will fulfill all his contracts and give them a good job."

A GENTLEMAN of this city has a dog that is very much attached to him and is his constant companion. When he leaves the city he does occasionally, the dog refuses to eat and manifests grief as plainly as a dumb animal can. On his return the dog is accustomed to receive him with every mark of gratification.
The other day however, the owner of the dog left town and was absent for several days. On his return the animal refused to notice him or to show in any way that it recognized him, and when spoken to paid no attention to the call and it was several days before friendly relations were established between the two. This incident which is true shows that our dumb animals are capable of experiencing pretty much the same sentiment as human beings.

ONLY partial returns have been received from the election in this Appella-District and it is therefore impossible to estimate with any degree of certainty what the result will be. It is however certain that Riddell will go out of the Bluegrass Counties with a majority of at least 2,500, and to secure his defeat this must be overcome in the mountain district which embraces a number of strong Democratic counties. Judge Riddell's friends do not believe that he will be defeated and are claiming his election by from 1,000 to 2,000 majority. On the other hand the adherents of Col. Holt claim his election also, but not so confidently as at an earlier time. Many of the counties being very distant and out of the reach of the telegraph, the returns, necessarily, come in very slowly.

Sudden Death.

Hiram Metcalf, a colored man who lives at Washington, at the upper grade this morning, was taken with hemorrhage of the lungs and died in about ten minutes. A coroner's inquest was held and a verdict rendered in accordance with the above facts.

Camp Meetings.

ROCKELES CAMP, August 4, 1884.
The power of the Lord rested upon the camp from the time of the early morning service until the close of the night. The evangelist left this morning but the interest has not abated in any perceptible degree.

Dr. Tracy preached a stirring sermon at 10:30 a. m., from John 11: 26. "Believest thou this," at the conclusion of which quite a number presented themselves at the altar, and seeking pardon, others the blessing of entire sanctification. All phases of christian experience were represented, and the people exhorted to seek at once a full and free salvation.

A vigorous sermon was preached in the afternoon by Rev. T. C. Brown, from Rom. 1: 7 and 10. "I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth, after the kind of Vanzolt, of Cincinnati, followed in an exhortation of great power and when the altar was presented it was almost filled with seekers. Six were converted and two sanctified.

At night the congregation was large and appeared greatly interested in the sermon preached by Rev. T. C. Brown, from John 11: 26. At the conclusion of the sermon one young lady came forward to the altar, and the view of the altar seemed impressed with the thought that this meeting is being held to save souls.

PAKES HILL, August 5, 1884.
Morning prayer was conducted at the public stand by Rev. J. C. C. Newton.
The regular 9 o'clock morning service was conducted by Rev. R. B. B. who is eminently qualified for such a duty. This was an enjoyable and impressive meeting. Many spoke sweetly of the presence and power of the Holy Spirit, and the renewed consecration to Him, while the loving tears of so many responsive souls told of the ministry of the Holy Spirit leading to the perfection of the soul.

At 10:30 a. m., Dr. Haywood, of Georgia, preached from Luke 15: 1 and 2, to an attentive audience. The sermon was practical, earnest, and spiritual, and it seemed as if Jesus of Nazareth had come among us with his human voice to call to his loving embrace sinners burdened with sin, and the view of the altar, the down-trodden. Surely every one who heard the sermon felt a fresh impulse to labor to rescue perishing souls and to stand up for the rights of "having authority," and left this afternoon for his Georgia home. May God send him on his mission with the same success.

At 3 p. m., Rev. W. F. Taylor, of Danville, preached from proverbs 6: 6 and 8.
His sermon is one of the best that deeply impressed you with the importance of living a holy life.

Dr. Deems, of New York, has just arrived and will preach Wednesday at 11 a. m., also Thursday at 11 a. m., and Friday at 11 a. m. Let everybody who wishes to hear this distinguished divine attend on those days, as he will return to his home in New York Friday afternoon. Dr. Deems is pastor of the "Strangers" of the City of New York.
